

How well can you manage a modern Construction Company?

facebook.com/meritgame

@MERITgame

£5,000
Prize fund

The International Construction Business Game

Supported by the Institution of Civil Engineers since 1988

"MERIT exposed me to a management role before I have fully experienced it at work, which has helped me with the understanding of what those above me are involved with."

Howard Clapp
Mott MacDonald

"MERIT is a fantastic opportunity for future leaders to compete internationally to prove their skills in running a business; leading a team, bidding strategy, coordination, delegation, and decision making."

"You learn more about yourself and the industry than in any other competition, it has helped shaped me to who I am today and therefore see it as a huge benefit."

Chris Taylor
Amey

The MERIT competition, growing every year and increasingly global, gives participants the chance to develop and refine their business leadership skills.

As a graduate, I benefited greatly from taking part in the MERIT competition, and would encourage future engineering leaders to seize the opportunity to participate."

Andrew Wyllie CBE
ICE President

"MERIT has given me an appreciation of higher level company decisions above individual project level."

Andrew Murray
AECOM

"MERIT is as a great opportunity to try yourself in a new role and develop your understanding of how construction business works."

Kair Duisenov
Fluor Ltd

"From people skills to the technicalities in managing a business company, MERIT has changed the way I perceive business altogether. It has opened new doors which I never knew existed, and has created a sense of curiosity in me to explore more."

Prajwal Aithal
W S ATKINS INDIA PVT LTD

Supported by:

"I would highly recommend people give MERIT a go. It was a lot of fun, great experience, and it strengthened company relationships."

Tyler Hall
AURECON

MERIT 2020 runs February to May 2020

For further details, and to register, visit the MERIT website:

www.MERITgame.com

Registration
Now Open

developing successful managers